Mission Moment – Sunday, July 10th

“We left our home after a severe drought destroyed our crops and caused us to lose all of our livestock,” shared Hodan Hassan, who lives with her husband and their three children in Somalia. As a result of not having enough food, Hodan’s 14-month-old child Suheyb became severely malnourished. When a community nutrition worker performed a home visit and screened Suheyb and his siblings for malnutrition, it was confirmed that Suheyb’s life was in danger and that she needed immediate treatment. Two weeks after enrolling in an outpatient program that provided therapeutic nutrition support, Suheyb’s weight was significantly healthier. “I am very happy to see my child’s health improve,” expressed Hodan. This project is supported by Presbyterian World Service & Development in partnership with Canadian Foodgrains Bank.

Message from the Minister:

A week or so ago, Michelle and I were talking about how we felt hanging a Canada flag up to celebrate Canada Day. In recent years, many people have felt uncomfortable celebrating Canada, because of all the problematic parts of our history. This was particularly the case last year, when Canada day came right in the middle of an investigation that was discovering thousands of unmarked graves on the sites of previous Residential Schools all across the country. How could we celebrate a country who had taken children from their families and hidden their bodies when they had died of the poor treatment they received? How could this be a day for fireworks and waving flags?

The Church struggles with the same thing, I think. Near my house stand two stone pillars, the last remaining vestiges of the Mount Cashel orphanage, whose decades of abuse is now costing the Catholic Church in St. John's nearly all of their buildings. For many in the Catholic church, and elsewhere, our religion can feel awkward to "celebrate", and this has led to many people identifying less and less with "organized religion".

"We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us." (2 Corinthians 5:20)

Nevertheless, I think it is important to love both our church and our country, despite their failings and faults. If you do not love something, you will not care enough to change it. It is our love of Canada that drives us to improve it, it is precisely because we love this country that we are motivated by stories from the past of our country doing things that we would call "un-Canadian". Those who care about the church are the ones who work to ensure it is learning to better display Jesus Christ to the world; those who don't care about the church will more likely just leave and leave it as it is.

So may we be willing to be involved with imperfect organizations, just as we are willing to be involved with imperfect people. Jesus was always criticized for giving his support to sinners, after all. And just as those sinners were redeemed by Jesus loving challenge, so will we transform the world we participate in. We are called to love. In Christ, the bad are not abandoned and destroyed, they are redeemed and made whole because they are loved. That is Good News for us and our broken world.

St. David's Church Announcements

Condolences

The sympathy of the congregation goes to the Sharp family on the loss of James Jack Sharp, who passed away on June 7, 2022 at the Ardnahein Care Home in Dunoon Scotland, at the age of 82.

James is survived by his three children Glenn, Jenny and Michael, his five grandchildren – Neil, Stephen, Stewart, Mac and Sophie, and his friend and partner - Wilma. He was predeceased by his first wife, Dorothy.

James was a Professor and Associate Dean of Civil Engineering at Memorial University, and a respected colleague and friend to many. During their time in St. John's, James and Dorothy attended St. David's and were involved in many of the activities and events held at the Church. (Some can remember Dorothy teaching Sunday School and James playing the bagpipes at special occasions.)

A celebration of his life will be held on September 10, 2022 at 1:00 pm at the old Battery Hotel.

A message from Andem Effiong

With profound sadness and grief, I announce the sudden passing of my immediate younger sister, Jennifer, due to stage IV breast cancer. I take great consolation in her service to God and humanity. Indeed, a beautiful flower, my "twin sister," you have transitioned from the flower bed to be a sweet-smelling savor in the presence of God. But it is hard to come to terms with the fact that I will never hear from you nor see you again in this earthly realm. You were greatly loved and adored. You will forever be in our hearts. Rest easy, Jen!

With love and best wishes,

Andy

Church Trivia Questions

Way back when:

Last week the question was: Which member of a long-time church family served as a teacher in Twillingate?

The answer is: Miss Elizabeth Chancey was the teacher at the day-school in Twillingate. The church had bought a building, formerly the Commercial School, as their place of worship and for the school.

This week the question is: After being in Twillingate for two years, the pastor was rehired but was asked to desist of what? And why?

Recent History:

Last week the question was: What activity for the local community caused a participant's mother to exclaim "I didn't know Christians were so nice!"?

The answer is: Several years ago, St. David's held a Vacation Bible Camp. There were over thirty children from ages 4 to 14 at the church for several days. At the last session, the parents of the children also came along for the final sing-a-long. It was one of those parents who said "I didn't know Christians were so nice!"

This week the question is: What year was that and what was set-up in the sanctuary?
