Mission Moment – Sunday, November 20th

Through Presbyterians Sharing, many people share their gifts to support the mission and ministry of the PCC. Congregations and individuals use their time and skills to develop educational resources, lead conferences and webinars, and provide coaching and mentoring. Teachers are preparing leaders to serve the church, leaders are helping renew and grow ministries, and mission staff are accompanying and encouraging international partners. Volunteers are ensuring that programs run smoothly by guiding study groups, sharing their experiences and insights and much more! Generous gifts of time, talent and treasure allow us to continue Christ's ministry, in Canada and around the world.

From St. David's Auxiliary (Atlantic Mission Society)

We join our voices and pray with the psalmist (Psalm 86: 10-11):

You are great and do wondrous things; you alone are God. Teach us your ways, O Lord, that we may walk in your truth; give us undivided hearts to revere your name. Amen.

Prayer No. 9– Taken from OVERFLOWING - Prayers for a More Sustainable, Compassionate and Just World, published in recognition of PWS&D's 75th anniversary!

Prayer Partnership: The Presbyterian Church in Canada offers a prayer partnership that may form part of a daily devotional, please consider these prayer partnerships.

Sunday, November 20 (Reign of Christ) Almighty and everlasting God, wrapped in glory; as you are compassionate, make us like you; as you are just, make us doers of justice; as you are one, unite us in the name of Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Monday, November 21 We give thanks and pray for the members of the Assembly Council who are meeting at Crieff Hills Retreat and Conference Centre in Puslinch, Ontario, from November 20–22.

Minister's Message

Well, this week I have some new to share that is big news for me and my family: We have officially purchased our first home! A bonus is that the home in question is the one we've been renting for years, so no move is required. A downside is that since this was a private sale with no realtor, we didn't get a "sold" sign for the front lawn to celebrate, so I've found this one from Google to stick in the bulletin instead of my lawn.

This is a blessing for us that has been made possible by the generosity of others. We have received financial help from family towards making a down payment, and as a minister, I celebrate the continuing generosity of this congregation that provides my daily bread (and mortgage payments)!

As I consider this experience from a Christian perspective, I want to encourage us all to remember the fundamentally biblical value of caring for the "least of these", and considering how the modern housing market fails to do that. In order to buy our house, I needed, among other things, over $20,000 of available cash in the bank. For many, many people who are working full time and renting, saving that kind of money is a nearly impossible obstacle. Nearly every homeowner my age that I know has a story just like mine: gifts from family opened the door to home ownership. I celebrate that generosity and blessing, but I don't want to sugarcoat the reality that as a Christian I have great concern over a housing system that ensures children of families with wealth to share can buy homes and build equity and children of families with no wealth will pay other people's mortgages. I have no easy answer to how to fix this, but I feel bound to mention it. Affordable housing is important, and it frustrates me to read stories of people trying to build "tiny homes" for an affordable place to live being denied permission by their municipalities (such as this story from 2020 in Pouch Cove: <https://www.cbc.ca/news/canada/newfoundland-labrador/tiny-home-big-problems-pouch-cove-couple-1.5468181>) As I live in my home, I need to keep thinking about those who are not homeowners, and how I can build a society that will help those less fortunate than myself experience the same blessing I have received.

On a less theological note, I am looking to learn how to do house stuff now. I can paint walls confidently thanks to a summer painting job, but new homeowners have big dreams and I'd love to learn as much as I can. If you've got a project that could use an extra set of hands and would help me learn the basics of drywall, plumbing, household electrical, etc, let me know!

Information from the Treasurer

My thanks to the Rollmann Family

The Rollmanns were on the Board of Managers (BOM) for several years. One project they took the lead on was the 2015 Church Member Directory, a 240th anniversary project. That booklet is one that I still keep next to my phone! They were one of the first “family” members on the Board, where an entire family joined and took part in meetings, committees, and the on-duty Sunday activities. They were heavily involved with the technical side including our audio recordings and the VOWR broadcasts.

On leaving the BOM at the end of their term, they continued helping out operating many behind the scenes technical aspects: being the administrators of our Canada Helps site, recording the audio and VOWR services, and updating the church’s website (bulletins, orders of service, calendar and events – everything website). With the arrival of Covid, we all evolved. The audio service morphed into the audio-visual service along with an expanded bulletin. The Rollmanns took the service, as recorded by David, and uploaded the information onto our website. They continued using the audio portion of the service for VOWR broadcasts. They have been our website gurus for nine years and I’d like to extend my sincere thanks for all the work they’ve done over the years. Thank you!

Yesterday, I had a chat with Marcella, Hans and Peter. Their garden has had and is still having, a very successful year. They are still getting a strawberry a day. (For you gardeners out there, this would be the everbearing plant variety.) The whole family asked me to pass along their warmest greetings to you all!

Fiscal Updates

For the next couple of weeks, you'll read some of the challenges this church now faces and some of the things we can all do to help.

This week I'm taking a look at the 2023 budget and trying to come up with a "first look". All I can say for certainty right now is that many expense items have increased while our income has not kept pace.

Currently we have a problem with the heating system, localized to the stage, which our heating company is investigating.

My Thanks

As treasurer I'd certainly like to thank everyone who continues to donate to St. David's through your envelopes on Sunday mornings, by e-transfers, or through your monthly PAD contributions. If you would like to donate monthly by PAD, contact the church and we will put you in touch with Ian Bruneau, our Envelope Secretary. He will answer any questions you may have. Alternately, you can donate via e-transfer to stdavidsnfld@gmail.com. Using your bank's comment section, you can specify information like your envelope number and how you would like your money distributed; to Current, Presbyterian Sharing, or any of our outreach programs. We accept donations through Canada Helps, via Canada Post, or you may drop it off at the church, or call the church and someone would be pleased to pick it up for you.

The sole email address we are using to accept donations is through stdavidsnfld@gmail.com . It is linked to our bank account and automatically accepts all donations.

Thank you to all of the volunteers who have helped with the children's program for the past few weeks. We do need more volunteer assistants to consistently offer a program, and ask for a time commitment of one Sunday per month, ideally with two or more volunteers per week.

So with that in mind, please sign up for November and December on the roster - which can be found on the bulletin board opposite the church office. It would be most appreciated if you would do this at your earliest convenience. Thank you!

She asks that everyone bring a mobile device (ipad/laptop) to access their book along with a Bible.

Might anyone in the congregation know of someone selling a used car???

Many of you have met Nneena and her daughters in Church and at coffee hour. Well, Nneena has taken her driver's test and now has her licence with the hope that she will be able to purchase a used car. Nneena has asked if members of our congregation might know of someone who would be interested in selling her a used car. If you know of anyone, please reach out to Nnenna or give Heather in the office a call.

From The Archives

Over the past couple of weeks, I've been sharing some of the beautiful quilts that were on display here at St. David's Church as part of the Millennium Quilting Exhibit back in 2000. There are lots more pictures from this show and I'll continue to share them with you over the weeks to come, but this week I wanted to change things up slightly with a picture from our not-to-distant-past, March 12, 2020, to be exact. This was the last Good Companions afternoon before COVID shut things down. When we were setting things up for the carpet bowling last week, we came across the old score sheet. It just brought back some good memories. As you can see, the Black Team may have won the game, but we were all winners!!

Church Trivia Questions

Way back when:

Last week the question was: Where does his portrait hang and why?

The answer is: The Rev. Hugh Pedley's portrait hangs in the national offices of the United Church in Canada. He wrote a book on Church Unity and was head of the Congregational Congress when the Congregationalists, Methodists, and Wesleyans merged. He is called one of the three founding fathers of the United Church in Canada.

This week the question is: Who was the minister who served the second shortest time in our history?

Recent History:

Last week the question was: This is a question: back in 1920 with the dedication of the memorial said that 30 members of the congregation joined the Newfoundland Regiment and twelve died. Does anyone know who the twelfth was?

The answer is: Confusion reigned. The source was the 1975 history on the church's 150th anniversary. They were right, 11 men died from the Royal Newfoundland Regiment (RNR) and two others listed on the plaque belonged to other regiments. One member of the RNR died after the war in 1924 from wounds suffered in the war.

This week the question is: What happens when you work very hard at creating a vegetable garden?

Do you have any ideas for some church trivia? Email or call the church.
